

Arian Mostaedi

a)Enthusiast and passionate host.

b)Publisher of architecture and interior design books.

c)Upholder of intercultural experience d)Very sociable, with a passion for travel and tourism.

Arian Mostaedi studied interior design in Barcelona and did part of his studies in California where he lived with his family for five years.

Arian Mostaedi moved back to Barcelona where he started the Links International Company.

For the last 15 years Arian Mostaedi has been writing more than 50 books about architecture and interior design. In order to commercialize and do marketing for Link's books, Arian Mostaedi travelled all over the world and took part to many exhibitions in several countries.

Arian's enthusiasm and love for hosting people is related to personal and direct experiences of traveling during business and personal trips worldwide. His great respect for different cultures and pleasure of discovering new cultures makes his job even more efficient.

Watermelon Barcelona Apartments is the fruit of his several passions and trips all over the world. Arian Mostaedi's aims is therefore to make people enjoy their stays and to keep in touch with Watermelon team. Long term relationships with clients are therefore the top priority of Arian Mostaedi.